MANAGED PRINT

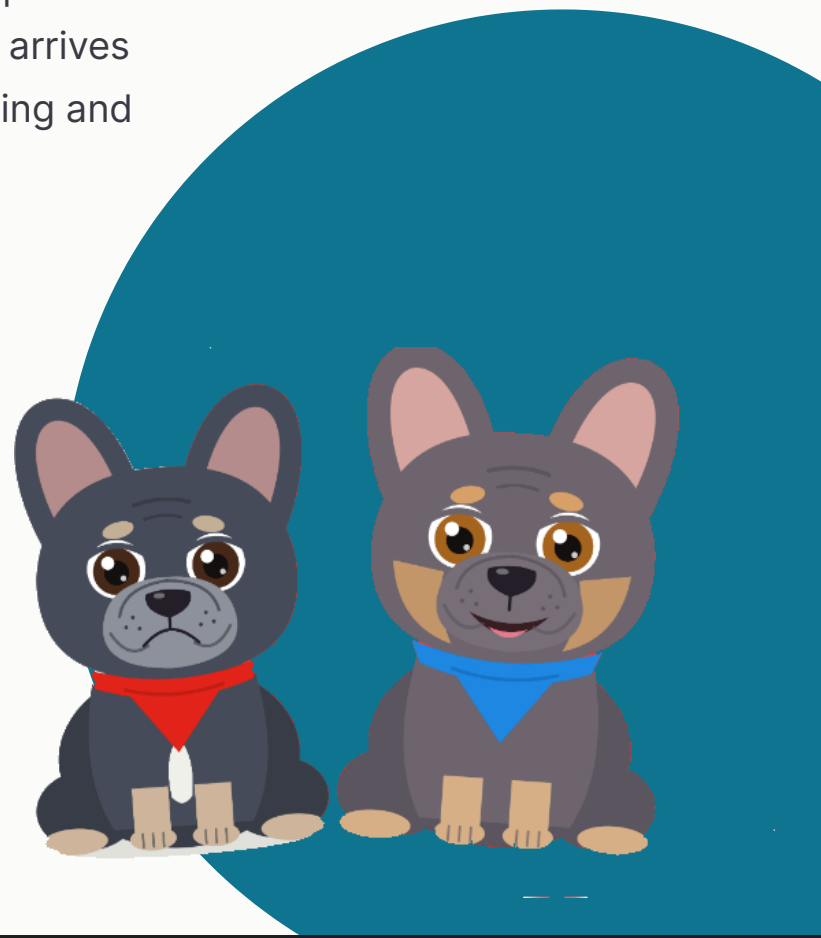

PRINT THAT LOOKS AFTER ITSELF

Print Management

Printers, copiers and documents, managed for you with one point of contact.

Kee looks after your printers and copiers end to end: the right devices, toner that arrives before you run out, proactive servicing and clear reporting.

- Average 30% saving on print costs
- 99.6% machine uptime
- 4 hour engineer response

Keeping promises. Keeping costs under control.

WHY MANAGED PRINT

Most businesses don’t know what printing really costs.

Printers and copiers bought at different times, toner ordered in a rush, engineers chased by phone and bills from several suppliers. Managed print brings it all together, so you can see what you spend, cut waste and keep every device working.

Save around 30%

The average saving on print costs.

99.6% uptime

Devices kept working, day in, day out.

4 hour response

An engineer on site within 4 hours.

WHO IT’S FOR

Managed print is a smart move if you:

Run out of toner
Ordering always seems to happen too late.

Have mixed devices
Printers and copiers from different suppliers.

Chase engineers
Breakdowns take too long to fix.

Can’t see costs
No idea who prints what or what it costs.

Worry about security
Confidential documents left on the printer.

Lease is ending
A copier contract coming up for renewal.

WHAT'S INCLUDED

Everything your print needs, managed.

Site analysis

A full review of your print setup, then honest advice on the hardware and software you really need.

Automatic toner

Devices are monitored remotely and toner is sent before you run out.

Servicing and repairs

Proactive remote monitoring keeps devices working, with an engineer on site within 4 hours if something goes wrong.

Meter readings and one bill

Meter readings handled for you, with consolidated billing.

Management reporting

See output and print spend by device, so you can control costs.

Secure print

Users log in at the device to release documents, with data encryption for files.

ALSO INCLUDED

Set up properly, supported properly.

- Network ready devices
- Staff training
- Quarterly reviews
- Recycling at end of life

MANAGED DOCUMENT SOLUTIONS

Beyond the printer: your whole document process.

Paper based processes cost time and money. We look at how documents move through your business, from capture and scanning to storage and approval, and design a better way.
